Sivota on Lefkas is a traditional village in the southeast of the island, approximately 33 kilometers from Lefkada town. It is located in a closed bay surrounded by lots of greenery. The bay is closed so that the sea looks more like a lake surrounded by beautifully overgrown hills and mountains. Sivota is a cozy village with nice terraces and restaurants at the water.

Monday    Sivota - Fiskardo

Fiskardo on the island of Kefalonia, is a place that you will certainly keep up with the colorfulness of the houses. This village survived the earthquake of 1953 as the only one. This place is very cozy and beautiful and so popular! Many terraces on the water, mundane; the Monaco of the Ionian Sea.

Tuesday    Fiskardo - Eufemia

Eufemia is a nice village with a beautiful beach. You can take a diving course here if you want to. The restaurant at the end of the village, where you have a view of the lights of Sami, has a delicious menu. The food here is Greek for luxury; the homemade chocolate bavarois with sabayon sauce tastes delicious!

Wednesday    Eufemia - Agios Nikolaos

The village of Agios Nikolaos itself is not that big and is scattered in the bowl-shaped bay. On the north side of Agios Nikolaos lies the fishing harbor. A quieter place and from the terrace of the tavern right by the sea you have a magnificent view of the fishing harbor and in the distance the hustle and bustle of the day excursions.

Thursday    Agios Nikolaos - Katakolon

Katakolon consists of three streets. On the car-free quay are many (fish) restaurants with cozy terraces on the water. Behind it lies the main street with shops, post office, bike rental and other useful things. If you follow this street past the harbor, after a sharp bend along bare rocks you will reach the cape on which the lighthouse watches. Katakolon is 'the gateway' to the famous Olympia, where the Olympic Games were organized centuries before Christ.

Friday    Katakolon - Keri Baai

Keri Bay is a beautiful bay that has a pebble sand beach. It is near Turtle Island; there are also many diving schools in the area. There are also several hotels, tavernas where you can eat and enjoy the fantastic view of the bay.

Tuesday    Poros - Kioni

Kioni is located on the island of Ithaka and there are several fishing boats in the harbor. The beautifully manicured houses with ceramic roof tiles give this village a beautiful appearance. Kalamos is a very green island with many pine and pine forests. There are all kinds of small, deserted, sandy and pebble beaches on the island. The sea water is turquoise and crystal clear. It is a mountainous island that is loved by sailors. Although Kalamos is very small, the highest peak here is 745 meters!

Thursday    Kalamos - Spartagori
