

Culinary route (2 weeks)

The flotilla escort reserves the right to deviate from the indicated route. This may have to do with the weather conditions or possible crowds in a specific port. Press 'read more' for the complete description and the sailing area.

The Lefkada routes 1 and 2 are sailed throughout the season.
13 May to 27 May 2023 and 12 August to 26 August 2023

During this Culinary journey we will take you to special places, with special restaurants and much more ... because we will also provide a pleasant surprise on this trip! That's all we'll tell you, otherwise it's no longer a surprise.

Saturday: Arrival Sivota, Lefkada

Sivota is a beautiful bay and provides a safe shelter for our fleet. Along the small port of Sivota are a number of nice fish taverns and restaurants. Our jetty is managed by Theo, owner of the restaurant 12 Gods. This restaurant is also a base for our briefings and joint dinners.

Sunday: Fiskardo, Kefalonia

Fiskardo on the island of Kefalonia, is a place that you will certainly remember because of the color of the houses. This village was the only one to survive the earthquake of 1953. This place is very cozy and beautiful; also called the Monaco of the Ionian Sea. Here we dine at Apagio where our Culinary sailing trip of flavors and sensations begins.

Monday: Lefkada Town

Lefkada town, also called Lefkas town, is a cozy town. There are plenty of restaurants and fish taverns and the locally made dishes are very good. On the west side of the harbor you will find several bars with terraces on the water and on the east side are mostly restaurants and cafes. Of course we dine at Ey Zhn; a small tavern in town, run by Chef Alex.

Tuesday: Parga, mainland

Parga is recognizable by the fortress 'Kastelli' in the hills and the long sandy beach. In the evening we are taken by water taxi to the cozy center of Parga to wander in the many streets that Parga has to offer. We dine at W&F Wine & Food at beautifully set tables with a view of the sea.

Wednesday: Parga, mainland

Today we stay in Parga, so there is time to wander in the many streets that Parga has to offer, but of course you can also go to the beach. For those who wish, we start the day with an extensive breakfast buffet at Cape North West. The rest of the day is spent freely and in the evening we dine here again, where seductive flavors, inspiring ingredients and gastronomic mastery are harmoniously combined in a menu of exquisite creations.

Thursday: Mongonissi, Paxos

Mongonissi is located south of Paxos, just 4 kilometers away from the capital Gaios. What makes this small island so unique is the complexity of the landscape. In addition, the deep blue sea, the sandy beach and the impressive caves form an ideal landscape. We continue our Culinary sailing trip at Mongonissi Beach Bar. Their motto is: We serve you as we would serve our friends.

Culinary route (2 weeks)

Friday: BBQ bay, mainland

A beautiful sandy beach on the mainland, where in the evening a BBQ is organized especially for the flotilla. Before that time you can swim, but there are also various water sports and activities offered. This will be a special bbq, specially adapted to our route.

Saturday: Corfu town, Corfu

At the foot of the fort is Mandraki, a small "club" port. Here we are on mooringline and from here it is a small walk to Corfu Town. The beautiful fortresses, the Venetian-style houses, the impressive squares, the narrow alleys and cozy terraces ensure that it is a city that makes a great impression. We dine here, at the foot of the fort, by the water.

Sunday: Red Rock, mainland

This will be a Culinary surprise, but certainly also a surprise in terms of place. This unique bay is perfect for a cozy 'walking dinner'.

Monday: Lakka, Paxos

The bay of it is bowl-shaped. The seawater in the bay has the most beautiful colors of blue and partly because of the olive trees and cypresses that grow up to the coastline, it looks like a lake. The harbour town has its own sailing club and a small promenade with numerous terraces. We dine at Akis Fish Bar & Restaurant with a beautiful location right on the water. The restaurant serves a selection of quality Mediterranean cuisine.

Tuesday: Lakka, Paxos

We stay on Paxos today, because it is more than worth touring around the island. The west coast of Paxos has beautiful cliffs and here you can look for your own private beaches.

Wednesday: Preveza, mainland

Preveza is a coastal town in western Greece. In the old town of Preveza it is wonderful to stroll through the narrow streets with the Seitan Bazaar, the Venetian clock tower from 1752, the Venetian fortress Agios Andreas from the 18th century and stately mansions from the 19th century. We have dinner at Kaixis Mermaid Restaurant, where the 'Amvrakia Shrimps', a recipe from grandmother, are recommended.

Thursday: Karnayo, Meganissi

Meganissi is a small (20 km<sup>2</sup>) island southeast of Lefkada. Immediately starboard in the bay lies Karnayo. A small family tavern with private beach and jetty is where we will moor.

Friday: Sivota, Lefkada

Here we unfortunately end our culinary journey, not in terms of the place and the restaurant, but the journey is over. Nevertheless, we will end this special trip together in an appropriate way!
